REPORT : Rocking Friday

21st April, 2017

Today's Rocking Friday topic was know me. It was well conducted by all the teachers. All kids were dressed up in red colour dress as the dress code was for boys -red shirt and red pant and girls-red frock. Children were very excited and in good mood in colorful dress.

All the children were assembled in atrium with their respective class-teachers. Assembly started with a Morning Prayer "Praise him in the morning praise him in the noon time". Then national pledge by Nupur and Anamika Mam followed by Shipra and Anjali Mam. They helped the children to stand in line during the pledge time. Next song on Boogie -boogie played to teach the students to identify their left and right body parts. All the children enjoyed the song and danced beautifully. Next, a small discussion on red color object was done for object identification.

As today's topic was Know me so 5 students from each class came on stage and introduced themselves.
