

Usha Martin World School, Patna

REPORT: “Investiture Ceremony – Empowering Students”

7th July, 2017

On the pleasant morning of 7th July, 2017 deserving young leaders of the school were bestowed with the responsibility of leading their school from the front with their commitment, confidence and competence.

Usha Martin World School, Patna, held the “Investiture Ceremony” of the student council 2017 with great elan. The day kick-started by heartfelt greetings to one and all present.

The ceremony started with National Pledge followed by school song. An inspirational song was presented by the students of the choir group to lift the spirit of the newly elected cabinet members.

The office bearers received their badges and sashes with immense pride and pleasure. Mrs. Anita Singh, the Principal, Dr. Tarun Singhal, the Chief Guest and Mr. Amboj Kr. Singh, Vice Principal of UMWS honored the newly appointed leaders with pinning of the Badges. Thereafter the vibrant flags of all the houses were carried with honor on the stage and the School Head Boy, Kumar Sambhav and Head Girl, Shalini Bharti with their team of office bearers took the pledge to hold the school Motto in high esteem.

Speaking on the occasion Dr. Tarun Singhal, Chief Guest, appreciated the efforts by the school for providing opportunities to the students. Mrs. Anita Singh, the Principal, congratulated all the chosen representatives of the school council and proposed vote of thanks.

On this occasion students who have attained excellence in academic and co-curricular spheres through hard work and perseverance were also felicitated.

The ceremony concluded with the singing of the National Anthem.

